Special Application Form for

Asian Studies Programme / BSc in International Business

A. Special Application Form

Attach this special application form to your application. If you apply for both programmes/languages, you must include a special application form and a motivational essay with each application.

B. Motivational Essay

All applicants for the BSc in International Business and the Asian Studies Programme must include a motivational essay of maximum two pages in length. You should relate to your past, your present and your planned future. Make sure to spend quality time writing and editing this essay. Choose one of the topics listed below for your essay and mark the topic (with "V").

	My contribution – through my background and experience – to an international programme and how I will benefit from studying in the international environment of CBS.
	My motivation for studying the programme and how I can contribute to the programme.
	My career objectives and how the programme contributes to achieving my goals.

C. Applicants for the Asian Studies Programme with Chinese ONLY!
