It is not possible to link directly to articles in this database. If possible, choose another database.

If no other options are available, you may create a link to the periodical in the library catalogue, and make this link available in the syllabus. The student must then find the article by themselves.

Link to a periodical reference in the library catalogue;

- Find the title of the periodical (see first part of "finding your article").
- Mark "Memo list", the reference will now be stored in the Memo list.
- Go to the memo list
