- Retrieve the article of your choice (cf. "Finding an article in the databases")
- Select "view"
- Find the article DOI-number on the right hand side of the page. Copy the number

Illustrative example:

The screenshot shows a journal article page. At the top, there are navigation links: « Return to Search Results | Edit My Last Search and a search bar labeled "Search this journal". The article title is "Evaluating Crime Fears" with a sub-title "A Research Note on a Pilot Study to Improve the Measurement of the 'Fear of Crime' as a Performance Indicator". The author is Stephen Farrall, from Keele University, UK, with email s.d.farrall@crim.keele.ac.uk. On the right side, there is a sidebar with navigation links: « Previous | Next Article », Table of Contents, and a section titled "This Article" which contains the DOI number 10.1177/1356389004050216 (circled in red), the article title, volume information (Evaluation October 2004, vol. 10 no. 4, 493-502), and links for Abstract (Free), Full Text (PDF), and References. At the bottom of the sidebar is a "Services" link.

- Add the DOI-number directly after the link that leads to remote access control (which might vary depending on database):

<http://esc-web.lib.cbs.dk/login?url=http://dx.doi.org/>
