

Dear Participant,

We are looking forward to seeing you at the 19th Annual Meeting on Socio- Economics in Copenhagen. This welcome information will provide you with useful links about the city of Copenhagen, as well as practical information on transportation, including the location of this year's conference among others.

We hope that the information package will help you plan your visit to our wonderful city. For further information, questions or comments please send us an email at: sase@cbs.dk

Best regards,

The International Centre for Business and Politics

Information about the 19th Annual Meeting on Socio - Economics

This year's annual meeting is being held at the Copenhagen Business School (CBS). While the campus spreads across Frederiksberg there is convenient and quick access between the different buildings in which the meetings will be held.

Registration will take place (all days) at the main hall in Solbjerg Plads (see map below)

Registration and Information

The Registration counter is open from: 28th of June: from 10am – 5.45 pm

29th of June: from 8.30am – 5.00pm

30th of June: from 8.30am – 12 md

Papers and Presentations

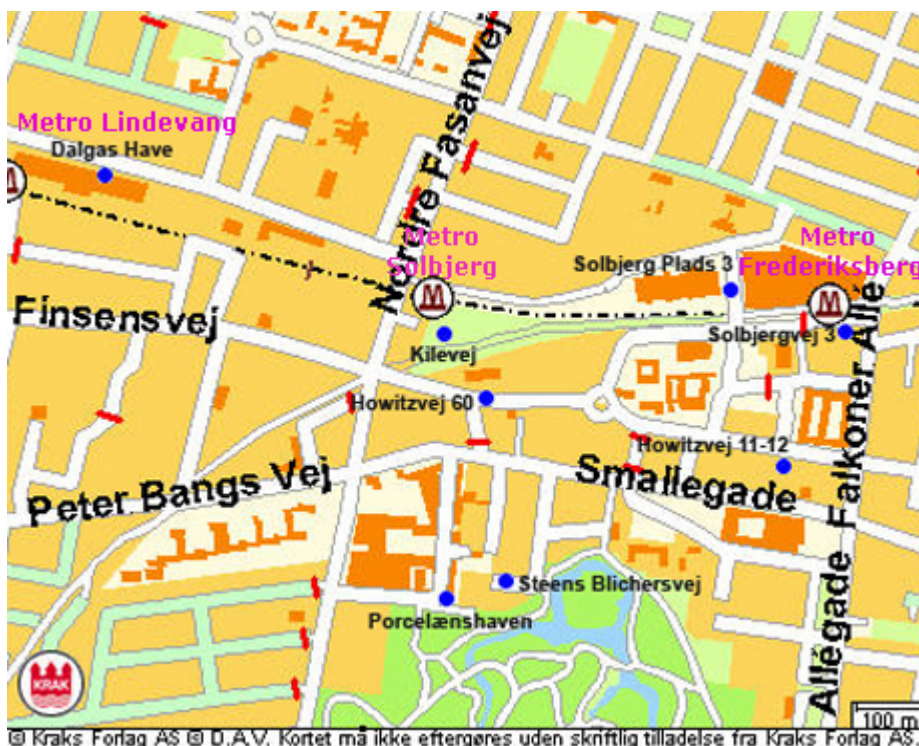

Please note that papers and power point presentations should be sent to us by email prior to the conference. The deadline is the 25th of June 2007 and the email address is: sase@cbs.dk

Your paper or presentation will be available through our webpage - www.cbs.dk/sase - from the moment you send it to us. As papers and presentations will be organised by their panel session number, we would appreciate it if you could include the title and number of the panel session where you will be participating.

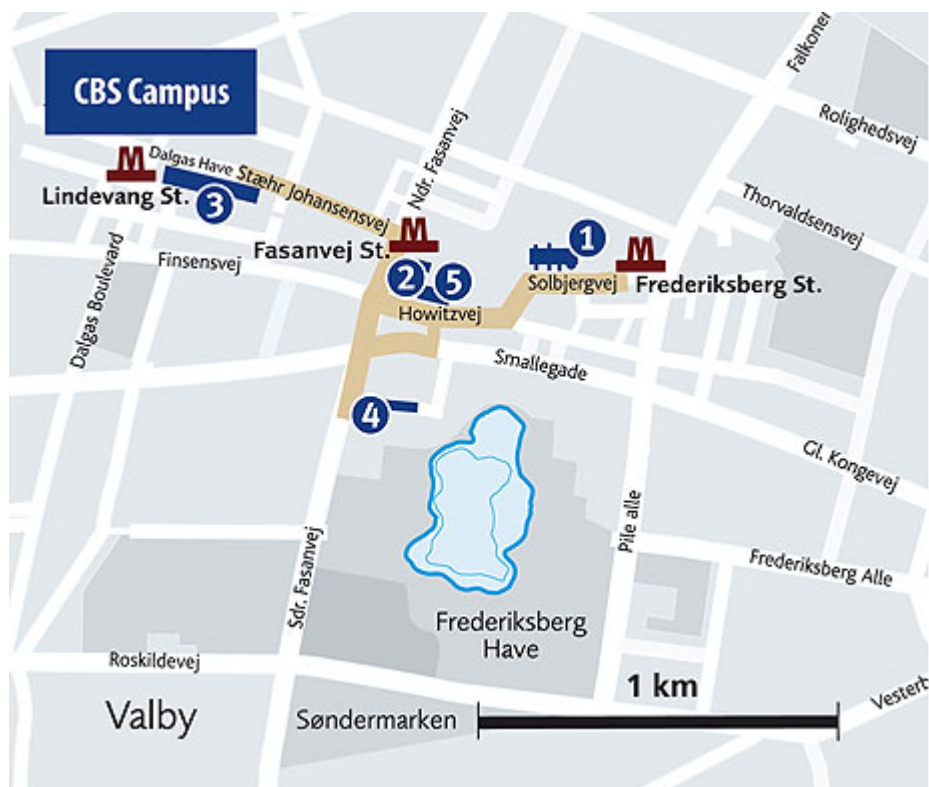

Finding your way

Copenhagen Business School has (about) eight different locations along the metro lines M1 and M2

All the blue dots on the map below indicate a CBS location. As mentioned above registration will take place at Solbjerg Plads, very close to the metro station Frederiksberg

Copenhagen is easy to reach from any location. We have direct flights to/from 129 cities world-wide, many international train connections to/from Scandinavia and the rest of Europe, direct links to the European E-highway system, and international connections by sea.

Public transport in Copenhagen is safe and reliable. Trains, metro and buses run frequently and efficiently.

Train to CBS - if you arrive by flight

Tickets and travel cards are available from the DSB ticket office in the railway station at the airport terminal 3. If you are one of several people travelling together we recommend travel cards.

- 3-zone ticket: DKK 27.00 (3,6 Euro)
- 3-zone travel card (yellow) 10-trips: DKK 155.00 = 21 Euro)

The train departs from terminal 3, platform 2:

- Direction: København H, Østerport or Helsingør
- Get off the train at Nørreport (two stops past Central Copenhagen Station) and follow the signs for the Metro (M)
- Metro: Direction Vanløse (M1 and M2) and get off the metro at either Frederiksberg (close to CBS main building) or Solbjerg (CBS Kilen campus) which is on Fasanvej

Approx. travel time: 30 minutes.

Taxi to CBS from Copenhagen Airports

Fares include a service charge, so tips are not expected. Most taxis accept major credit cards. Should you wish to pay with a credit card, let the driver know before beginning the trip. On request, taxi drivers will provide you with a computerised receipt for the fare.

You will find taxis just outside terminal 3.

Direction: Copenhagen Business School, Solbjerg Plads 3, Frederiksberg
Fare: Approx. 230,- DKK (39US$ or 31 Euro)

Approx. travel time: 20-30 min. (depending on the traffic)

Train to CBS - if you arrive by train at Copenhagen Central Station (København H)

- Direction: Any S-train in northern direction, (track 9 and 10)
- Get off the train at Nørreport (the second stop) and follow the signs for the Metro (M)
- Metro: Direction Vanløse (M1 and M2) and get off the metro at either Frederiksberg (close to CBS main building) or Solbjerg (CBS Kilen campus) which is on Fasanvej

Approx. travel time: 12 min

Public transportation while you are here

2-zone 10-trip cards (blue) are valid within all of central Copenhagen and Frederiksberg. They are sold on the stations and in most kiosks (DKK 110.00 or 16 Euro).

10-trip cards are valid on buses, trains, metro and harbour busses and you can transfer freely as many times as you want within one hour per trip.
