

Nordic Network for European Legal Studies
NNELS Seminar

at

Copenhagen Business School - CBS LAW
October 10th 2018

CBS
COPENHAGEN
BUSINESS SCHOOL
HANDELSHØJSKOLEN

Venue: Augustinus Fondens meeting room
Copenhagen Business School
Solbjerg Plads 3, 2000 Frederiksberg
D-block, 4th floor

Please take the elevator in the A-block next to the bookstore.

Metro station: Frederiksberg
Use stairs at the west end of the station CBS (east entrance) is located 50 meters from the stairs at ground level

Chairwoman: Christina D. Tvarnø

Program:

9.30-10.00 Welcome, registration, and coffee

10.00-12.00 Frist session
- Legal research

The rule of law in EU and The Ajos case

Presentation by

Professor Juha Raito,

Faculty of law, University of Helsinki

Professor Ruth Nielsen,
CBS LAW, Copenhagen Business School

Followed by a general discussion

12.00-13.00
13.00-14.30

Lunch at the CBS Faculty Club

Second session

– Ongoing PhD research

Presentations by

Sune Klinge

Copenhagen University

Subject: EU law, legal theory and the Ajos-case

Laura Holkko

University of Helsinki.

Subject: Regulating Goods in the Internal Market - Various Approaches And Developments

Gloria Golmohammadi

Stockholm University.

Subject: "Participation in EU law-making through consultation - a legal framework

(15 minutes each)

Followed by a general discussion of the EU law development and specific comments regarding the presentations

14.30-15.00

Coffee

15.00-16.30

Third session

- teaching

Blended learning in EU law courses (how and why?)

Presentations by

CBS Teach department – Jakob Ravn

Henrik Andersen
associate professor, CBS LAW
Subject: reflections from UK

Followed by a round table presentation by researchers from the other universities on blended learning in EU law

16.30–17.30

Networking, drinks, and tapas – End of Day

Please let us know if you are attending 2018 NNELS

at

atb.law.cbs.dk (Amalie Toft Bentsen)

before October 4, 2018.

