

Bylaws
of
Copenhagen Business School
Handelshøjskolen
(CBS)

March 2012

In pursuance of s. 13, 1 of the University Act, cf. Consolidation Act no. 695 of 22 June 2011, the following shall be provided:

Part 1 - General provisions

1. The name of the university is "Copenhagen Business School - Handelshøjskolen" - abbreviated CBS. CBS is a government-financed, independent institution within public administration under the supervision of the Danish Minister for Science, Innovation and Higher Education (hereinafter referred to as the Science Minister).

2) CBS shall conduct research and provide research-based education at the highest international level within business administration, business language, and related fields. CBS shall ensure equal interaction between research and education and engage in ongoing strategic selection, prioritisation, and development of research and educational fields. CBS claims freedom in research and shall protect individual and university freedom in research and ethics of science.

3) CBS shall disseminate the knowledge of academic methodology and results, cooperate with society and contribute to the development of international cooperation. CBS' research and educational performance shall contribute to the promotion of growth, welfare and development in society. As a central knowledge and culture-bearing institution, CBS shall exchange knowledge and competences with the surrounding community and encourage employees to participate in the the public debate. In doing so, CBS shall ensure that the most recent knowledge within relevant fields is made available to degree programmes without research.

4) CBS shall have its registered address and venue at Frederiksberg.

Part 2 - Governing provisions

The Board of Directors

2. The Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as the Board) shall be the supreme authority of CBS. The Board shall be responsible for the interests of CBS as an institution of education and research. The Board shall lay down directions for the organisation, long-term activities, and the development of CBS. The Board shall be responsible to the Science Minister for the activities of CBS, including the administration of the overall resources of CBS. The Board shall administer the funds of CBS in a way that benefits the university's purpose in the best way possible.

2) The Board shall also have the following rights and duties:

- i) On the recommendation of the President, the Board shall approve the budget of CBS, including the allocation of the aggregate resources and the principles for the employment of the resources, and sign the financial statements
- ii) The Board shall prepare the bylaws of CBS and amendments thereto, which shall be approved by the Science Minister
- iii) The Board shall ensure co-determination and involvement of staff and students in significant decisions
- iv) The Board shall make a development contract with the Science Minister on the overall activities of CBS
- v) The Board shall appoint and terminate the employment of the President of CBS, cf. (5) in this section, and appoint and terminate the employment of the University Director on the recommendation of the President, cf. (7) in this section
- vi) The Board shall be entitled to create a position as Vice President on the recommendation of the President. If that is the case, the Board shall appoint and terminate the employment of the Vice President on the recommendation of the President, cf. s. 6
- vii) The Board shall appoint an auditor, cf. 30,4, who shall be a state-authorized public accountant
- viii) For executive master programmes offered in collaboration with other universities or other higher education institutions, the Board may decide that the representatives of the academic staff in the study board may include academic staff or teachers employed at such institutions, cf. s. 20.

3) The chairman of the Board shall together with another member of the Board be authorised to sign on behalf of CBS in cases of acquisition, sale, and mortgaging of real property.

4) The Board shall not have any powers in individual cases regarding the staff of CBS (apart from the President and the University Director, cf. 2,(5), and the Vice President, cf. 2,(6), or regarding students.

5) Prior to the appointment of a President, the Board shall prepare a job description including terms of employment and qualification requirements and the provision that the President shall meet the requirements of s. 14 (2) of the University Act. The Board shall be entitled to terminate the employment of the President in accordance with standard rules of employment and contract, cf. s. 29 of the University Act. Refer to the appendix of these bylaws regarding employment and termination procedures.

6) Prior to a possible appointment of a vice President, the Board shall prepare a job description including terms of employment and qualification requirements and the provision that the vice President shall meet the requirements of s. 14 (2) of the University Act. On the recommendation of the President, the Board shall be entitled to terminate the employment of the University Director in accordance with standard rules of employment and contract, cf. s. 29 of the University Act. Refer to the appendix of these bylaws regarding employment and termination procedures.

7) Prior to the employment of the University Director, the Board shall on the recommendation of the President prepare a job description including terms of employment and qualification requirements. On the recommendation of the President, the Board shall be entitled to terminate the employment of the University Director in accordance with standard rules of employment and contract, cf. s. 29 of the University Act. Refer to the appendix of these bylaws regarding employment and termination procedures.

3. Wherever possible, the Board shall ensure openness in their work, cf. 2-6.

2) The Board meetings shall be public. Matters subject to the provisions of the act on public administration confidentiality, all matters regarding individuals and matters including information about contractual negotiations with private parties or similar negotiations with public partners must be treated confidentially. Matters may, however, be treated confidentially if deemed necessary in view of their nature or other circumstances.

3) Board meeting material, including agendas and minutes must - in accordance with existing legal rules - be made public.

4) Issues falling under the secrecy provisions of the Public Administration Act, may not be made public. A document or information that is part of a confidential case, must be made public in accordance with ss. 3, provided that the document or information is not inherently confidential.

5) All matters involving individuals, matters involving information about contractual negotiations with private parties or similar negotiations with public partners, may be exempt from the requirement that board material is to be made public, if deemed necessary due to the nature of the case or other circumstances. A document or information that is part of matters covered by no. 1, must be made public in pursuance with ss. 3, unless making it public is contrary to the provisions of no.1.

6) Matters and documents and information thereto related, which are treated behind closed doors, cf. ss. 2,3 may be exempt from the requirement that board material is to be made public if deemed necessary due to the nature of the case or other circumstances.

7) The Board shall lay down rules of procedure. The Board shall be entitled to determine a procedure for the organisation of the board meetings in such rules of procedure.

4. The Board shall be entitled to decide to take legal action against members of the Board, the President, auditors, if any, or others in the event of any losses inflicted on CBS.

2) The Board shall be authorised to take out standard board liability insurance.

3) The decision to dissolve CBS shall be made by the Board. This decision shall require at least two thirds of the members of the Board voting in favour thereof. Detailed provisions hereof shall be set down in the rules of procedure. The decision shall be approved by the Science Minister.

5. The Board shall have 11 members of whom 6 members are external members, 2 members are elected by the academic staff, including PhD students employed by CBS, 1 member is elected by the technical-administrative staff, and 2 members are elected by the students. The Board shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman from among its external members by ordinary majority. The composition of the Board shall reflect the tasks of CBS, cf. s. 12, 2 of the University Act.

2) The external members shall be appointed on the merit of their personal qualifications for a period of 4 years. External members shall only be entitled to one re-appointment. External members and the other members of the Board shall contribute to the promotion of the strategic activities by means of their experience and insight into education, research, and dissemination and exchange of knowledge. The external members must also be able to build bridges and represent the university with respect to strengthening societal legitimacy and support of the university. The external members must represent different sectors, e.g. other research institutions, the cultural life, public companies, the corporate sector, etc. The external members must be experienced with management, organisation and finance, including reviews of budgets and accounts. Experience with university management - preferably with an international perspective - and experience with public administration should be represented among the external members.

3) The Board shall set up a recommendation committee, cf. ss. 4 and an appointment committee, cf. ss. 5. The recommendation committee shall nominate external members to the appointment committee after a public announcement and must ensure that the nominated candidates meet the requirements of ss. 2. The appointment committee shall appoint the external members among the candidates nominated by the recommendation committee.

4) The following shall constitute the recommendation committee:

- The chairman of the Board
- One member of the Board
- One member of the Board of the Danish Society for the Advancement of Business Education (DSEB), appointed by the Board of DSEB
- the chairman or the deputy chairman of the Academic Council, but not the President.

5) The appointment committee shall be made up of the whole Board together with:

- One member appointed by the Board of the Danish Society for the Advancement of Business Education (DSEB) with insight into CBS' activities, except members of the Board of DSEB
- One member appointed by the Academic Council among CBS' staff and students, except members and observers on the Academic Council.

6) The members of the nomination committee and the appointment committee shall be appointed for a period of 4 years. External members shall only be entitled to one re-appointment. The Board shall lay down procedures for the setting up of these two bodies.

7) The members of the Board from the academic staff, including PhD students employed by CBS, shall be elected by and among the academic staff for a period of 4 years. The member of the Board from the technical-administrative staff shall be elected by and among the technical-administrative staff for a period of 4 years. The members of the Board from the students shall be elected by and among the students for a period of 2 years, so that one student is elected for a period of 2 years in even years, and one student is elected for a period of 2 years in uneven years. The elections shall be held pursuant to the provisions of part 3. Re-election may take place. In case of permanent absence of a member, a substitute shall enter the committee pursuant to the provisions in s. 29(1) and (2).

8) If one of the external members of the Board steps down due to illness or similar personal issues before the expiry of his/her term of office, the appointment committee shall appoint a new external member for a four-year period according to the procedure described in ss.3-5.

President

6. The President shall be responsible for the day-to-day management of CBS within the framework established by the Board.

2) The President shall be authorised to sign on behalf of CBS except in cases of acquisition, sale, and mortgaging of real property, cf. s. 2(3), and shall decide in all cases, except such cases as laid down in these bylaws, which have been assigned to the Board, cf. s. 2(1) and (2), 3(4), 4 and 5(3) and (8), to the Academic Council, cf. s. 9(2)-(4), to the study boards, cf. s. 17(1)-(5), or to the PhD committees, cf. s. 23(2)-(5).

3) The President shall also have the following rights and duties:

- i) The President shall decide the internal organisation of CBS within the framework laid down by the Board in the bylaws
- ii) The President shall decide a leadership codex, including guidelines for staff and student inclusion
- iii) The President shall recommend the appointment and departure of the University Director and Vice President, if any, to the Board
- iv) The President shall appoint and terminate the employment of deans, cf. ss. 6 and s. 12, 1
- v) The President shall recommend the budget to the Board and sign the annual report
- vi) The President shall prepare proposals for a development contract following open discussions at CBS, including the Academic Council
- vii) The President shall establish and dissolve departments
- viii) The President shall decide the programme portfolio
- ix) The President shall approve all external partnerships that bind CBS
- x) The President shall determine rules of disciplinary measures towards the students
- xi) In special cases, the President shall be entitled to dissolve the Academic Council, cf. s. 9(1), and in specific cases assume the responsibilities of the Academic Council, cf. s. 9(2).
- xii) The President shall lay down the standard rules of procedure for the Academic Council, study boards, and PhD committees. The standard rules of procedure shall ensure transparency in the duties of the council, the study boards, and the committees to the greatest extent possible. The President shall also be responsible for laying down rules for tasks, establishment and composition of joint committees at departments.

13) The President shall hold meetings with student representatives at a regular basis.

4) The President shall also have the following rights and duties, unless the President decides to delegate such rights and duties to the deans or to a person authorised thereto by the President:

- i) The President shall appoint and terminate the employment of heads of department, cf. ss 7 and s. 14,1 and library director, cf. s 8, 2.
- ii) The President shall establish and discontinue study boards and approve chairmen and vice-chairmen of the study boards
- iii) The President shall appoint and dismiss programme directors on the recommendation of the study boards.
- iv) The President shall establish and discontinue the required number of PhD schools, cf. s. 21.
- v) The President shall appoint and remove heads of PhD schools, cf. s. 22(1)
- vi) The President shall establish and discontinue PhD committees and appoint chairmen and, if required, vice-chairmen of PhD committees, cf. s. 23(1)-(2) upon recommendation of the PhD committees
- vii) The President shall approve programme regulations upon request by the study board
- viii) In special cases, the President shall be entitled to dissolve a study board, cf. s. 16, and in specific cases assume the responsibilities of a study board, cf. 17(1).
- ix) In special cases, the President shall be entitled to dissolve a PhD committee, cf. 23(1), and in specific cases assume the responsibilities of the PhD committee, cf. s. 23(3).

5) Vice-President, if any, University Director, library director, deans, heads of department, programme directors, and heads of PhD schools are responsible for their tasks on the authority of the President.

6) Prior to the employment of a dean, the President will prepare a job description with terms of employment and qualification requirements, including the requirement that deans must be recognised researchers, cf. s. 2, (i) in the act on research advice, etc, and have experience and insight into education, management and university interaction with the external environment. The President shall be entitled to terminate the employment of the dean in accordance with standard rules of employment and contract, cf. s 29 of the University Act. Refer to the appendix of these bylaws regarding employment and termination procedures.

7) Prior to the employment of a head of department, the President will prepare a job description with terms of employment and qualification requirements, including the requirement that the head of department must be a recognised researcher, cf. s. 2, (i) in the act on research advice, etc, and must have teaching experience. The President shall be entitled to terminate the employment of the head of department in accordance with standard rules of employment and contract, cf. s. 29 of the University Act. Refer to the appendix of these bylaws regarding employment and termination procedures.

Administration and University Director

7. An administration office shall be at the service of the President, the management, and the units of CBS. The administration shall be responsible for the management of the joint technical and administrative duties at CBS, which are not assigned to other units.

2) The administration shall be managed by the University Director on the authority of the President, cf. s. 6(5).

Library and library director

8. The primary function of the CBS Library shall be to provide library and information service to CBS researchers, lecturers, and students. The library shall also serve the public under the provisions of the Library Act or consequent provisions.

2) The CBS Library shall be managed by the library director on the authority of the President, cf. s. 6(5).

The Academic Council

9. The President shall appoint an Academic Council, primarily to ensure co-determination and involvement in academic issues. The Academic Council shall help ensure the quality and legitimacy of decisions of academic importance and contribute to the communication between management, staff and students.

2) The Academic Council shall have the following rights and duties:

- i) The Academic Council shall give their opinion to the President on the internal allocation of funds, including the allocation of academic positions to departments
- ii) The Academic Council shall give their opinion to the President on the principles for internal allocation of academic positions to departments
- iii) The Academic Council shall give their opinion to the President on proposals for the development contract.
- iv) The Academic Council shall give their opinion to the President on the academic organisation, including the establishment and discontinuation of departments and which programmes to offer
- v) The Academic Council shall give their opinion on key strategic research and educational fields and plans for exchange of knowledge.
- vi) The Academic Council shall ensure that the provision regarding freedom in research and ethics of science in s. 1,2 is complied with
- vii) The Academic Council shall make comments to the President in issues regarding freedom in research, research integrity, ethics of science and academic practice

- viii) The Academic Council shall give their opinion to the President about quality and relevance of CBS' overall programme portfolio
- iv) The Academic Council shall give their opinion to the President on the composition of a committee to investigate the possibilities for calls for academic positions
- x) The Academic Council shall make recommendations to the President on the composition of specialist committees to assess applicants for academic positions.
- xi) The Academic Council shall award PhD, doctoral and honorary doctoral degrees
- xii) The Academic Council shall make recommendations to the President on the composition of specialist committees to assess those eligible for the title as adjunct professor
- xiii) The Academic Council shall participate in the appointment of members to the recommendation and appointment committees, whose purpose is to appoint external members to the Board, cf. s. 5, 4-5.

3) The Academic Council shall be entitled to make statements on all academic issues of significant importance to the activities of CBS and shall discuss the academic issues presented to them by the President.

4) Once a year, the Academic Council shall inform the Board of their work.

10. Wherever possible, the Academic Council shall ensure openness in their work, cf. ss. 2

2) The meetings and meeting material of the Academic Council shall be in accordance with the same provisions as those of the Board, cf. s. 3,2-6.

3) The Academic Council shall be entitled to appoint committees and delegate tasks to these. Committees with powers of decision shall only consist of members of the Academic Council and have the same proportional composition as the council, cf. s. 11,1.

4) The Academic Council shall set up its own agenda within the framework of the standard rules of procedure laid down by the President, cf. s. 6(3)(xii)

11. The Academic Council shall have 13 members: The President shall be permanent chairman, 9 members shall be elected by and among the academic staff including PhD students employed by CBS, and 3 members shall be elected by and among the students.

2) The representatives of the academic staff, including PhD students employed by CBS, shall be elected by and among the academic staff for a period of 3 years. The representatives of the students shall be elected by and among the students for a period of 1 year. The elections shall be held pursuant to the provisions of part 3. Re-election may take place. In case of permanent absence of a member, a substitute shall enter the Academic Council pursuant to the provisions in s. 29(1) and (2).

3) Two observers among the technical-administrative staff to participate in the meetings of the council with a right to speak, but not a right to vote shall be elected for a period of 3 years.

4) The Academic Council shall choose a chairman and a deputy chairman among their members. If only one candidate is nominated for the chair, the candidate will be chosen. If there are two candidates, the chair will be decided by majority of votes. If there are more than two candidates, and none of these candidates obtain at least half of the votes, there shall be a new vote between the two candidates who have obtained the most votes.

Deans

12. The research activities of CBS, including dissemination of research, shall be managed by a dean of research. The educational activities of CBS shall be managed by a dean of education.

2) The deans shall be responsible for their tasks on the authority of the President, cf. s. 6, 5.

Departments and heads of department

13. Research at CBS shall be conducted at departments. Departments shall deliver teaching activities to CBS' programmes within their respective academic fields.

2) Departments shall be established and discontinued by the President in accordance with the guidelines for CBS' organisation, long-term activities and development as laid down by the Board, cf s. 2, 1 and after consulting the Academic Council, cf. s. 9, 2, (iv).

14. Each department shall be managed by a head of department, who shall be appointed by the President, cf. 6(4)(i). On the authorisation of the President, cf. s. 6,5, the head of department shall be responsible for the day-to-day management of the department, including planning and distribution of tasks in dialogue with the employees of the department and the students. The head of department shall ensure quality and coherence with department research and teaching and shall together with the study board and programme directors follow up on the assessment of programmes and teaching.

2) Academic staff shall have freedom in research and shall be entitled to conduct research within the research strategic framework of the university that covers the whole profile of the university. On the authorisation of the President, cf. s. 6, 5, the head of department shall be entitled to order department staff to solve specific tasks. However, the academic staff cannot be required to solve specific tasks during all of their working time and thus be deprived of their freedom in research.

3). On the authorisation of the President, cf s. 6, 5, the head of department shall approve agreements made by the staff on the responsibility of externally financed research projects, cf. also s. 6(3)(vi).

4) On the authorisation of the President, cf s. 6, 5, the head of department shall be entitled to appoint deputy heads of department and research directors and delegate managerial tasks to these. In case more than one deputy head of department is appointed, only one of them shall be appointed as acting head of department in the absence of the head of department. The acting head of department shall not hold the position of head of department for more than three months without being appointed by the President.

15. The head of department shall be obligated to involve the staff in issues of significant importance to the running and development of the department.

2) In order to promote dialogue and involvement, cf. ss.1 and s. 14, 1, the department must have one or more permanent joint committees with participation of the head of department and department staff. The President shall be responsible for laying down further provisions regarding the tasks, establishment and composition of the joint committee, cf. s. 6, 3, (xii).

Study boards, chairmen of study boards, and programme directors

16. Study boards shall be set up for the degree programmes of CBS. Study boards may be set up for a specific programme, for parts of a programme, and joint study boards may be set up for several programmes.

2) The study board structure shall be laid down by the President in pursuance of the provisions on organisation, long-term activities, and development of CBS laid down by the Board, cf. s. 2(1).

17. The study board shall ensure organisation, implementation, and development of degree programmes and teaching, including

- 1) quality assurance and quality development of degree programmes and teaching and follow-up on assessments of programmes and teaching
- 2) preparation of proposals for programme regulations and changes therein
- 3) approval of plans for organisation of teaching and tests as well as other assessments included in the exam
- 4) approval of applications concerning credit transfer including pre-approved credit transfer and exemptions
- 5) statements within their field on all issues of importance to programmes and teaching and discussion of programmes and teaching presented by the President or a person authorised thereto by the President
- 6) holding of annual meetings with representatives of the departments that deliver teaching to the programme or programmes belonging to the study board.

2) The study board shall elect a chairman from among its academic staff members and a vice-chairman from among the students. The chairman and the vice-chairman shall be approved by the President, cf. s. 6, 4, (ii).

3) The study board shall recommend one or more programme directors to the President, cf. s. 6, 4, (iii). The programme director shall be a member of the permanent academic staff (professor or associate professor).

4) The study board shall be entitled to appoint committees and delegate tasks to these. Committees with powers of decision shall only consist of members of the study board and have the same proportional composition as the study board, cf. s. 18,1.

5) The study board shall set up its own agenda within the framework of the standard rules of procedure laid down by the President, cf. s. 6, 3, (ix).

18. The President shall set up study boards and determine the number of members in the individual study boards, however, at least 4 and no more than 10 members. Each study board shall consist of an equal number of representatives of the academic staff and the students.

2) The representatives of the academic staff shall be elected by and among the academic staff for a period of 4 years. The representatives of the students shall be elected by and among the students for a period of 1 year. The elections shall be held pursuant to the provisions of part 3. Re-election may take place. In case of permanent absence of a member, a substitute shall enter the study board pursuant to the provisions in s. 29(1) and (2).

19. The programme director shall in collaboration with the study board manage the practical organisation of teaching, examinations, and other assessments included in the exam. The programme director shall approve the research questions and the deadline for submission of the master's thesis as well as a guidance plan for the student.

20. In study boards for master's programmes that are offered in cooperation with other universities or other higher education institutions, the representatives of the academic staff may also include academic staff or teachers employed by such institutions respectively.

PhD schools, head of PhD school, and PhD committees

21. The President shall establish and discontinue the required number of PhD schools.

2) The President shall be entitled to decide to establish PhD schools in cooperation with other universities and in affiliation to one university.

3) If the President decides to establish PhD schools in collaboration with other universities, cf. s. 16b(4) of the University Act, the President and equally competent persons at the collaborating universities shall make arrangements of further provisions for appointment of the head of the PhD school and the composition of PhD committees, cf. s. 22 and 23.

22. The President shall appoint and remove a head of each PhD school. The head of the PhD school shall be a respected researcher and have experience of and insight in PhD education. The President shall obtain the necessary information, so that the appointment procedure ensures that the head of the PhD school has academic and managerial legitimacy.

(2) On the authorisation of the President, cf. s. 5, 6, the head of the PhD school shall appoint PhD supervisors in accordance with internal rules and regulations. The head of the PhD school shall approve PhD students on the recommendation of representatives of the academic staff in the PhD committee.

(3) On the authorisation of the President, cf. s. 5, 6, the head of the PhD school shall, with the participation of the PhD committee, plan the courses of the school, including international visits.

(4) On the authorisation of the President, cf. s. 5, 6, the head of the PhD school shall, with the participation of the PhD committee, evaluate school activities on an ongoing basis. The head of the PhD school shall submit these evaluations to the President for review. Evaluations and review plans shall be published.

23. The President shall set up PhD committees and determine the number of members in the individual PhD committees, however, at least 4 and no more than 12 members. Each PhD committee shall consist of an equal number of representatives of the academic staff and the students.

2) The President shall appoint chairmen and, if required, vice-chairmen for PhD committees on the recommendation of the committee in question.

3) The PhD committee shall mainly be responsible for:

- i) Recommendation to the President of a chairman among the academic staff of the PhD committee and, if required, a vice-chairman among the students of the PhD committee
- ii) Recommendation of the composition of assessment committees to the President.
- iii) Approval of PhD courses.
- iv) Preparation of internal guidelines, including supervision, for the PhD school to the head of the PhD school.
- v) Statements on evaluations of the PhD programme and supervision, including international evaluations of the PhD schools, to the head of the PhD school.
- vi) Handling of applications concerning credit transfer including pre-approved credit transfer and exemptions
- vii) Statements within their field on all issues of importance to PhD programmes and supervision presented by the President or a person authorised thereto by the President.

4) The PhD committee shall be entitled to appoint sub-committees and delegate tasks to these. Committees with powers of decision shall only consist of members of the PhD committee and have the same proportional composition as the PhD committee, cf. ss 1.

5) The PhD committee shall set up its own agenda within the framework of the standard rules of procedure laid down by the President, cf. s. 6, 3, (ix).

6) The representatives of the academic staff shall be elected by and among the academic staff for a period of 4 years. The representatives of the PhD students shall be elected by and among the PhD students for a period of 1 year. Elections to PhD committees shall be held with elections to the other collegiate bodies of CBS pursuant to the provisions in part 3. Re-election may take place. In case of permanent absence of a member, a substitute shall enter the PhD committee pursuant to the provisions in s. 29(1) and (2).

Future employer panels

24. The President shall set up a number of recruiter panels, which together cover CBS' programme portfolio. Each programme shall have one recruiter panel.

2). The duties of the recruiter panels are as follows:

- 1) To ensure a continuous dialogue with the most significant recruiters of the programmes about the quality and relevance of the programmes to society
- 2) To give their opinion to proposals for new programmes and about significant reforms of existing programmes
- 3) To give their opinion in connection with the development of new teaching and examination forms.
- 4) To discuss other significant programme strategic issues presented by the university

Apart from the tasks mentioned above, the recruiter panels may give their opinion and make suggestions to all programme-related issues.

3) The recruiter panels shall be composed of external members, who all have experience in and insight into education and the education area covered by the panel, cf ss. 1. A recruiter panel is composed of 7-12 members.

Part 3 - Election provisions

Election board

25. The President shall appoint an election board consisting of representatives of the election classes stated in s. 28 in elections to the Board, cf. s. 5, 1 and s. 5,7, the Academic Council, cf. s. 11, 1-2, the study boards, cf. s. 18, 1-2, and to PhD committees, s. 23, 1 and s. 23, 6. The President shall appoint the chairman of the election board.

2) The election board shall on behalf of the President organise and hold elections and ensure that election rules, cf. s. 26 are complied with. The election board shall make sure that information on the election is provided, including publication of the election circular, cf. s. 26.

Election rules

26. The President shall lay down rules in the election circular on the exercise of franchise, the holding of the election, and the results of the election. The election circular shall be laid down on the recommendation of the election board.

27. The elections shall be held as elections by proportional representation between lists. Coalition lists and electoral pacts may be formed.

28. Persons eligible and persons entitled to vote shall be divided into three election classes:

Election class I Consists of professors, associate professors (with or without research duties), assistant professors, PhD students employed full-time by CBS, and others employed by CBS on the basis of an academic assessment and with an average weekly working time of at least 20 hours.

Election class II Consists of technical-administrative staff with an average weekly working time of at least 15 hours.

Election class III Consists of students. The election rules may determine that students who are only enrolled in a CBS programme for a short period of time, or students who are enrolled for less than half of a full-time programme shall not be entitled to vote.

2) The right to vote and eligibility shall only be asserted within one election class. The election circular shall contain rules of option in case of a person being affiliated to more than one election class, however, cf. s. 3.

3) In elections to the PhD committees, PhD students shall be regarded as members of election class III.

29. If a member of the Board or the collegiate bodies loses his/her eligibility or legitimately resigns, the substitute who comes closest according to the results of the last ordinary or extraordinary election shall enter the Board or the collegiate body. The term of office for the substitute shall then run until the next ordinary election term.

2) By-elections shall be called when a member loses his/her eligibility or legitimately resigns, and no substitute for the person in question has been elected.

3) If new bodies are established during the election period, extraordinary elections shall be held for such bodies. The term of office for the elected members shall then run until the next ordinary election term.

Part 4 - Financial provisions

30. CBS is covered by the Danish act on state accounting etc, and the budget guide's rules for state-financed, independent institutions.

2) The financial statements shall be prepared according to rules laid down by the Minister.
