COPENHAGEN BUSINESS SCHOOL
HANDELSHØJSKOLEN

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER UNIVERSITY PROGRAMME

Copenhagen Business School (CBS) is internationally accredited and a leading European business school. ISUP is one of the Europe's longest running and largest summer programmes. In 2021 approx. 2,300 participants joined ISUP. The programme is open to all and welcomes domestic and international students as well as professionals.

Attending ISUP also gives students the unique possibility to experience Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark which is known for its charm and the aesthetic combination of historic and modern architecture. Copenhagen is a trendsetting place, and it is truly a cosmopolitan, safe and approachable city.

Courses and credits

ISUP offers approx. 50 courses taught in English at bachelor and graduate levels. They cover a wide range of classic business courses as well as more diverse, innovative, and entrepreneurial courses, which draw on other academic disciplines. Each course is 7.5 ECTS, and students can enroll in one 3 week course or two 6 week courses.

Social Programme

To complement our academic programme, ISUP offers the opportunity to take part in a fun-packed cultural and social programme. It is a great opportunity for international participants to get to know each other, Copenhagen, and Danish culture through specially arranged activities such as guided city tours, folk dancing, and a weekend-trip around Denmark.
