INDIVIDUAL GRANTS

The Carlsberg Foundation, two-year post doct-grant: 1.021.248,31 DKR. The project studied institution building in three small open economies following the financial crisis: Denmark, Iceland and Ireland.

PARTICIPATION IN GRANTS

Participant in Work Package 1 of the Horizon 2020-funded 'European Legitimacy In Governing Through Hard Times: The Role of European Networks' (ENLIGHTHEN) (PI: Leonard Seabrooke). The workpackage concentrates on theory building and studying the input, output, and throughout processes in European institutions and examining the role of expert networks in European modes of governance. The work package places emphasis on theoretical development of an analytical framework useful for the three empirically oriented work packages.

Participant in Work Package 4 of the FP7-funded 'Strategic Transitions for Youth Labour in Europe' (STYLE). The work package studies policy transfer and -learning in dealing with school-to-work-transitions in European economies.

ORGANIZATION OF WORKSHOPS AND CONFERENCES

Co-organizer of the workshop 'Ideas, Political Power and Public Policy', Comwell Borupgaard, Snekkersten, June 9-10 2014 (organized together with Daniel Beland [University of Saskatchewan] and Leonard Seabrooke [Copenhagen Business School]). Other than the organizers, participants included Robert H. Cox, Juliet Johnson, Daniel Mügge, Craig Parsons, Ben Rosamond, Vivien A. Schmidt, and Wesley Widmaier.

Co-organizer of the conference 'Central Banking at a Crossroads: Europe and Beyond, Axelborg, Copenhagen, 29-30 January 2013 (organized together with Grahame Thompson [DIIS/Copenhagen Business School], Daniela Gabor [University of West England] and Jakob Vestergaard [DIIS]. Key note speakers: Anat Admati (Stanford University), Charles Goodman (London School of Economics), Erkki Liikanen (Governor, Bank of Finland), Perry Mehrling (Columbia University) and Manmohan Singh (IMF). Among the participants in the conference were representatives of the Danish National Bank, the Bank of Japan, the European Central Bank, the Bank of International Settlements, the World Bank, and the IMF.

VISITING SCHOLAR
