TEACHING RESPONSIBILITY

I teach at all levels (bachelor to Phd) on a range of subjects such as research design/methods, comparative welfare state analysis, sociology, public policy analysis, EU integration.

I have been invited to hold guest lectures and/or lecture series in various institutions, such as the College de Bruges (2015 and 2016), University of Copenhagen, University of Helsinki (now with docent title), University of Bristol, University of Manchester, University of Dublin, University of Bologna, European University Institute, University of Florence.

In 2021, I will teach a phd summer school (with Torben Iversen and Jonas Felbo-Kolding) on the Nordic model.

In July 2016, I held a phd summer school course (with participation of Bo Rothstein) – 20 contact hours - on The Nordic Welfare State Model in a Comparative and European Perspective at the Oslo Phd Social Science summer school, with 25 international students.

(<http://www.sv.uio.no/english/research/phd/summer-school/courses-2016/>). I have contributed to various other international phd courses (see Teaching portfolio).

I am co-supervising Ph.d student Anders Hentschel, University of Bremen, due to complete the Ph.d in 2021. I am supervising Niels Fuglsang, Copenhagen Business School.

Please consult my teaching portfolio for more information.

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH DISSEMINATION AND ORGANISATION (SINCE 2015)

I have been active in a number of international academic networks, presenting research, but also organizing international conferences (or sections thereof), managing and organising paper selection and other activities. This list includes dissemination activities since 2011 only, as an indication of my engagement.
