

Chin Ruamps

Porcelænshaven 24A, 1.70. 2000 Frederiksberg, Denmark

Email: wcr.egb@cbs.dk Mobile: +45 53 90 12 15

Areas of Specialisation: Political Philosophy, Moral Philosophy

Areas of Competence: Applied Ethics, Normative Ethics

Academic Appointments

2021-Present – Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Copenhagen Business School

- Analyse how humanitarian agencies' different principles, normative values and practices give rise to different ethical and legitimacy concerns towards private sector engagement in humanitarian action
- Investigate how aforementioned ethical and legitimacy concerns affect sustainable collaboration and innovative partnership with the private sector

2018-2020 – Assistant Researcher, the Ministry of Science and Technology, Taiwan

- Analyse the normative foundations of Environment, Society and Governance Principles and Corporate Social Responsibility and examine how such principles are implemented in the private sector
- Examine how Europe and the United States integrate CSR and ESG principles into state-level social and economic strategies

2017-2018 – Postdoctoral Fellow, Academia Sinica, Taiwan

- Develop the Confucian revision of the principles of justice as fairness
- Construct paper on Confucian Democracy to justify individuals' duty to aid the global poor

Education

2017 – Ph.D., Manchester Centre for Political Theory, Politics, University of Manchester

- Thesis title: 'Humanitarian Assistance Dilemma—The Moral Cost of Withdrawing Assistance'
- Supervisory panel: Professor James Pattison, Dr. Stephen de Wijze, Dr. Christian Schemmel

2011 – M.Sc., International Political Theory, University of Edinburgh

- Dissertation title: 'Is it morally justifiable for humanitarian organisations to keep providing assistance to refugees and thereby risking prolongation of the war?'
- Supervisory panel: Professor Tim Hayward

2009 – B.A. (Honours) with First Class Honours in English, National Kaohsiung Normal University

- Four-year undergraduate programme consisting of 120 seminar courses

Publications

- Wen Chin Ruamps, 'A Study on Industrial Innovation Mechanism and Strategy of Basic Research in Taiwan', Government Research Bulletin, forthcoming.
- Wen Chin Lung, (2019), 'The humanitarian assistance dilemma explained: the implications of the refugee crisis in Tanzania in 1994', Global Change, Peace & Security, 31:3, pp. 323-340.
- Wen-Chin Lung, (2019), 'The Incommensurability of Two Normative Theory in Allocating Limited Resources: A Brief Analysis of the Dilemma', National Applied Research Laboratories Research Portal.

Research in Progress

- The Humanitarian Exit Dilemma: The Moral Cost of Withdrawing Aid. (Book Manuscript)
- ‘The Practice of Partiality and the Ethics of Humanitarian Assistance’. (Working Paper)
- ‘Providing Aid Based on Trust? On Affected Population’s Reasonable Expectations and Humanitarian Agencies’ Obligations’. (Working Paper)
- ‘Relief Aid and Its Discontents—On Affected Populations’ Unique Dependence and Humanitarian Agencies’ Causal Responsibility’. (Working Paper)
- ‘Principled Aid in An Unprincipled World: Business-humanitarian Partnerships in Humanitarian Action’. (Working Paper)
- ‘The Humanitarian Assistance Dilemma as the Challenge of Traditional Humanitarian Principles’. (Working Paper)

Selected Presentations

‘Providing Aid Based on Trust? On Affected Population’s Reasonable Expectations and Humanitarian Agencies’ Obligations’, The 6th International Humanitarian Studies Conference (IHSA). Paris. November 2021.

‘Humanitarian Assistant under Siege—a Non-Consequentialist Approach to Solve the Aid Dilemma’, The European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR) General Conference. Prague. September 2016.

‘Harming Some to Save More? The Ethics of Humanitarian Assistance in Times of Conflicts’, Taiwan-UK Academic & Scientific Cooperation Symposium. Manchester. December 2015.

‘The Humanitarian Dilemma: Acting Right by Allowing More Harm’, 4th Global International Studies Conference ‘Justice, Peace and Stability: Risks and Opportunities for Governance and Development’. Frankfurt Am Main. August 2014.

‘The Humanitarian Dilemma: Saving Lives by Allowing More Harm’, 2013 Annual Human Welfare Conference. Oxford. May 2013.

Grants and Awards

- 2018 - National Applied Research Laboratories Policy Division Research Fund
- 2016 - Humanities PGR Conference Fund
- 2016 - ECPR Grant, European Consortium for Political Research
- 2014 - Manchester Doctoral College Fund
- 2013 - Norman Chester Fund Award
-

Teaching Experience

- 2020: ‘Globalization: Practices, Perspectives and Ideologies’, Copenhagen Business School
- 2020: ‘Modern Technology: In Philosophy, Organizations, and Ethics’, Copenhagen Business School
- 2013-17: ‘Introduction to Political Theory’, University of Manchester
- 2015-17: ‘Ethics’, University of Manchester
- 2015: ‘Challenges for Democratic Politics’, University of Manchester