RELEVANT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE AND ORGANIZATIONAL WORK

Danish Anti-Counterfeiting Group, Copenhagen, Denmark May 2017 - now
Member of the Board, Secretary

Danish Anti Counterfeiting Group (“DACG”) is a Danish group with the purpose of fighting product piracy, a growing and serious type of crime. Product piracy is not only damaging to the producers of original products but constitutes a threat to the safety and security of the individual. DACG represents more than 80 companies and organizations, and organizes awareness campaigns as well as participates in preparatory legislative work on issues pertaining to the enforcement of IP rights.

Law Shifters, Denmark

February 2015 - now

In order to inspire young kids to engage with the law, I conceptualized and helped start Law Shifters together with performance artist Stine Marie Jacobsen. In Law Shifters, we take students from 8th to 12th grade, give them the simplified facts of an actual legal dispute, and have them enact the entire court proceedings as lawyers, judges, jurors, and witnesses. But we do not tell them the law. That part, they have to figure out for themselves.

Danish Students Abroad, Denmark

December 2013 - August 2015

Youtube Manager, Talent Advisor, Motivational Speaker

DSA is an international organization promoting and lobbying for opportunities for Danish students to take an entire degree outside Denmark. I managed the organization’s Youtube profile, amongst others, interviewing Danes who took degrees around the world and making short videos of these interviews. I also acted as an advisor to students wishing to study abroad and held motivational/informational talks at the different Danish universities.

Yale ACLU, CT, USA

August 2012 - December 2013

Member of the Yale ACLU branch.

Jura’s Torsdag§café, Copenhagen, Denmark

September 2011 - December 2014

Chairman of the sponsorships committee,

The law school’s Thursday Café where we organized concerts and other non-academic student events. I chaired the sponsorships committee where we engaged with potential sponsors and ensured sufficient funds for the café.

University of Copenhagen, Faculty of Law, Copenhagen, Denmark

September 2011 - August 2012

Tutor in EU Law and Criminal Law

PUBLICATIONS

Using patent valuation methods to assess damages in patent infringement cases under the Unified Patent Court

March 2018

in collaboration with Prof. Dr. Gbafele of Oxfirst

Publication: World Patent Information (Elsevier)

The paper discusses how the Unified Patent Court (“UPC”) should calculate damages under the rules of the UPC Agreement. In particular, the article discusses the applicability and feasibility of financial instruments and methods in damages calculations.

Udmåling af det rimelige vederlag (Determining the Reasonable Royalty)

August 2015

Publication: Unpublished

Master’s thesis given the grade 12 (A+). The paper identifies how Danish courts determine a reasonable royalty for intellectual property infringements and critique these principles in light of economic theories on bargaining.

Preliminary Injunctions

Working Paper

Paper intended for a Law and Economics Journal

The paper sets out a framework for analyzing preliminary injunctions, comparing the Danish rules to a decision rule based on optimizing joint surplus efficiency.

Note on the Sufficiency Standard under the UPC

Working Paper

Note intended for a Law and Economics Journal

The note discusses the sufficiency of proof standard for preliminary injunctions under the UPC. It is concluded that, when deciding if to grant a preliminary injunction, a social efficiency optimizing court should never make a requirement of proof that goes beyond 50 % probability that the injunction seeking rightholder will prevail in a case on the merits.
