

Log in to the digital application system as a current student at a Danish University

Instructions for logging in

If you are a student from one of the Danish Universities (SDU, DTU, CBS, RUC, KU, ITU, AAU, AU) you can log in to the system using your University login.

Logging in to the digital application system is done through WAYF ("Where Are You From"), which is a national login service used by Danish universities.

If you do not have a valid login for a Danish university system, you can create a new user account in the application system instead, please see the instructions for:

- How to log in with NemID
- Log in to the digital application system with a personal user account

Choice of language

When you click on a link for the application system, you will arrive at the system welcome page. In order to create a new user account, it is important that you change the language to English if you prefer this communication language for your application. If you use a Danish browser, you should choose English if you do not understand Danish or another Nordic language.
