

UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES (CHSS)
INSTITUTE FOR DEVELOPMENT STUDIES (IDS)

SUCCESSFUL AFRICAN FIRMS AND INSTITUTIONAL CHANGE (SAFIC) PROJECT STAKEHOLDERS' WORKSHOP

Venue: NAIROBI SAFARI CLUB, LILIAN TOWERS, UNIVERSITY WAY, NAIROBI

Date: 07th December, 2017

08.30-09.15 Arrival and Registration

09.15-09.25 Welcome, Prof. Winnie Mitullah, Director, Institute for Development Studies (IDS)

09.25-09.45 Introductions and overview of the SAFIC project, by Prof. Dorothy McCormick

09.45-09.55 Remarks on UoN research and international linkages by Prof. William Ogara -
Director Centre for International Programs and Links (CIPL) - University of Nairobi

09.55-10.25 Key note address, by Amb. Dr. Joseph Kiplagat: Director Industrial Research –
Ministry of Industry, Trade, and Cooperatives.

10.25-10.35 Open discussion and Q&A session

Moderator: Prof. Dorothy McCormick, University of Nairobi

10.35-11.05 Group Photo/Coffee break

11.05-11.25 Entrepreneur Capabilities of Equipment Manufacturing firms in Kenya, by Dr. Radha
Upadhyaya

11.25-11.45 The manufacture of food processing equipment experiences in Kenya, by Mr. Daniel
Kamau – DK Engineering Kenya

11.45-12.05 State Business Relations in Kenya, Tanzania and Zambia, by Dr. Paul Kamau

12.05-12.15 Open discussion and Q&A session

Moderator: Mr. Herbert Wamalwa, University of Nairobi

12.15-12.35 Market Diversification in Food Processing in Kenya, by Prof. Dorothy McCormick

12.35-12.55 What constitutes successful African enterprises? by Dr. Radha Upadhyaya

12.55-01.05 Open discussion and Q&A session

Moderator: Dr. Paul Kamau, University of Nairobi

01.05-01.15 Closing remarks by Dr. Paul Kamau

01.15 – 02.15 Lunch and departure