

Copenhagen Business School at AOM

10-14 August 2018

Saturday, August 11

9:00-11:00 AM

Business in Society - Inequality Platform

The Inequality Platform is investigating inequality, its causes and consequences at Danish, European and International level and in areas such as business, economics and politics. Come by the official CBS booth and learn more about the inequality platform, and the different research topics and questions addressed in the inequality platform.

15:00 -16:00 PM

Blended Learning at CBS

Online and blended learning is a prioritized strategic development area for CBS. Meet and discuss blended learning with Wilbert Van der Meer, Head of Secretariat, Dean of Education's Office.

Sunday, August 12

9:00 - 11:00 AM

Business in Society - Transformations Platform: Technology, Data and Knowledge in the Digital Age

The Transformations Platform explores the implications of digital and other technological developments for economic and societal transformations.

Meet key CBS researchers connected to the Transformations platform;

Abayomi Bayiere, Assistant Professor and PHD, Department of Digitalization
Dana Minbaeva, Professor, Department of Strategic Management and Globalization

Monday, August 13

12:00-13:00 PM

Business in Society - Difference and Diversity Platform

The Diversity and Difference Platform is focusing on diversity and difference - culture, ethnicity, sexuality, language - to enable inclusion and equality. Working with organisations on diversity management.

Meet key CBS researchers involved in the Difference and Diversity Platform

Lena Olaison, Adjunct Professor, Department of Management, Politics and Philosophy
Aleksandra Gregoric, Associate Professor, Department of International Economics and Management

15:30-16:30 PM

Meet CBS Senior Management

Per Holten-Andersen, President
Kirsten Winther-Jørgensen, University Director
Søren Hvidkjær, Dean of Research
Gregor Halff, Dean of Education