

Lecture series in public organizing, value and innovation POVI Copenhagen Business School

Fall seminar 2018. Rooms & paper titles TBA

September 4 (12-13.30): Round table talk & Paper presentation, Anne Reff Pedersen & Elisabeth Naima Mikkelsen, IOA .

September 24 (12-13.30): Talk by Professor Mark Moore, TBA Harvard University.

October 9 (12-13.30): Paper presentation and round table talk, Carsten Greve & Lene Tolstrup, IOA.

October 23 (12-13): Talk by Assistant Professor Mie Plotnikof, Københavns professionshøjskole.

November 6 (12-13.30): Paper presentation & Velux project talk, Paul Du Gay, IOA.

November 20 (12-13): Talk by Professor Haldor Byrkjeflot : Democracy, governance and law in the Nordic public sectors & Nordic project talk.

December 4 (12-16): Topic TBA & Christmas lunch.

The research agenda of the seminar is to investigate the organizational conditions of creating public value for society by focusing on the relations between policy reforms, public management, organizational practices and innovation in organizations. Central theoretical research questions are about; public value and policy conditions for public organizing, public organizational change, innovation and translations and the role of bureaucracies.