

Oliver Kofod Gottfredsen Ranneries

Department of Organization, Copenhagen Business School

Kilen, Kilevej 14A, K4.50A, 2000 Frederiksberg, Denmark

Email: Okr.ioa@cbs.dk

LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/OliverRanneries

SUMMARY

PhD fellow examining how AI transforms organizational practices and work. My background spans the Danish startup ecosystem, consulting, and academic research, giving me both practical and theoretical perspectives on organizational change and digitalization.

EDUCATION

2025 - 2028

Copenhagen Business School | PhD in Artificial Intelligence and Organizing

Examining AI implementation in public and private sector organizations

2023 - 2025

Copenhagen Business School | MSc in Business Administration and Psychology

GPA: 10.8 | Thesis: 12/A

2020 - 2023

Copenhagen Business School | BSc in Business and Psychology

Bachelor project: 12/A

2012 - 2015

Bornholms Gymnasium | Almen studentereksamen

RESEARCH INTEREST

Organizations | Start-ups | Technology | Digitalization | Artificial Intelligence | Qualitative Methods | Psychology |

TEACHING, SUPERVISING AND EXAMINING

2026 spring

HA i projektledelse 2. semester | Metode, projektstyringsværktøjer og tværfagligt 1. års project

WORK EXPERIENCE

2024 - 2025

Mercer | Compensation and Benefits Consultant (Student Assistant)

- Junior consultant working with C&B for 10+ clients
- Statistical and data analysis
- Working with internal AI optimizing work processes
- Key areas of responsibility: Day-to-day data extractions, job architecture, IPE evaluations and administrative work

2021 - 2023

Copenhagen School of Entrepreneurship | Community Activation Projects (Student Assistant)

- Hired as a student assistant for the project "Digital Start-Up Generator" connecting technical and commercial talent in a series of events
- Co-created and hosted 6 events and 3 hackathons (4 online events during lockdown) partnering with DTU Skylab

2020

Millennials Mental Wellbeing | Research Phase (Ambassador)

- Non-profit start-up – part of the core team and now ambassador
- Assisted with market and customer research, data analysis, outreach and managing potential partners

2018 - 2019

Rainmaking at Pier 47 | Front of House & Event Manager

- Event planning for external and internal community events and hackathons
- Managing 11 people in the café, reception, kitchen and at events