

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Lotte Thomsen, Associate Professor
Centre for Business and Development Studies
Copenhagen Business School

Scientific Qualifications

- PhD Economic Geography. Danish Institute for International Studies and Department of Geography, Copenhagen University (2007)
- M.Sc. Economic Geography. Department of Geography, Copenhagen University (1998)
- Associate Professor, Copenhagen Business School (Asst. Prof. 2010-2012) (2010 - )
- Member of Editorial Board, Geoforum, Elsevier (2025 - )
- International Officer, Economic Geography Research Group Committee, Royal Geographical Society (with the British Institute of Geographers) (2019 - )
- Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society (with British Institute of Geographers) (2017 - )
- Member of the International Network Programme Committee, Danish Ministry of Higher Education and Science (2018-2021).
- Visiting Fellow, Global Production Network Center, National University Singapore (2017)
- Associate Editor, Regional Studies, Regional Science (2018 - )
- International Advisory Board, Regional Studies, Regional Science (2014-18)
- Member of Governing Responsible Business, CBS Research Excellence Cluster (2017 - )
- Member of Regional Studies Association (2017 - )
- Member of Global Value Chains Initiative, Duke University (2005 - )
- Post-doctoral fellow, Copenhagen IT University (2009)
- 2018: Research leadership course, CBS Executive, 2018 (9 full days)
- PhD candidate and Project researcher Danish Institute for International Studies (1999-2008)
- Visiting Fellow, Institute for Southeast Asian Studies, National University Singapore (2001)
- 1996-2002: Board member/coordinator, Danish Association for Development Researchers.

- Regular referee for top journals incl. Journal of Economic Geography, Economic Geography, Environment and Planning A, Geoforum, Global Networks.
- PhD supervisor for Søren Bøgh Sørensen, CBS; Dorothee Nussbruch, CBS; Wamalwa Nguyri, IDS, Nairobi.
- Auditor, Social Accountability (SA 8000) standardization.
- Board member Danish Association for Development Researchers (1996-2002)

Research, Educational and Project Management

- Research Leadership Course, CBS Executive (2018)
- Leading Kenya team of SAFIC Project (FFU-funded) (2015-2019)
- Leading fieldwork teams for business-to business development and global value chain interventions for the World Bank and Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs. (2008-10).
- Programme Director, BSc. and MSc. in Business, Language and Culture, CBS (2017-18)
- Member of Study Board, BLC and MSC Business, Language and Culture, CBS (2013-18)
- Coordinator MSc. Business and Development Studies, CBS (2010-14)
- Coordinating and teaching the CBS BSc courses ‘Globalisation & Sustainability’, ‘Asian Business Systems’, and MSC courses, ‘Managing Development Interventions’, ‘Business Strategy in Developing Countries’, ‘Global Value Chains in Africa’.
- Managing Editor of the Danida-magazine ‘Erhverv & U-lande’, Danish Technological Institute (1998)

Fieldwork and Funding

- Fieldwork with gemstone, gold and jewellery manufacturers, traders and retailers in Thailand, Indonesia and Singapore (2 months) (2017); funding received from the Global Production Network Centre, National University Singapore.
- Participating researcher in FFU SAFIC project, Funded by FFU/Danida (2013-15)
- Fieldwork with clothing retailers in Central Vietnam (2 months) (2012)
- Fieldwork with food processors in Central Asia for World Bank GVC intervention (2012)
- Fieldwork for reviews of Danida B2B Programme in Vietnam, Bolivia and Nicaragua (2007-09)

- Fieldwork with clothing manufacturers in Vietnam (1 year), for PhD funded by FFU/Danida (2000-2001)
- Fieldwork with clothing enterprises in Vietnam (6 months) (1996)